SALTIRE FOUNDATION

OUR OBJECTIVE IS TO FIND, FUEL AND SPARK SCOTLAND'S HUMAN POTENTIAL, IN TURN CREATING OUR NEXT GENERATION OF BUSINESS LEADERS.

We are a non-political, not for profit organization that is reliant on visionary individuals who want to see a more enterprising Scotland.

Why is it important?

Scotland has massive potential. We have internationally renowned education, research and new technologies. Yet we consistently underperform when it comes to translating ideas into global businesses.

Creating vibrant businesses, an enterprising culture and role models will be the foundation of Scotland's long term success.

To change, Scotland needs a pipeline of business leaders with the entrepreneurial skills, confidence and global mindset to take ideas of huge potential and release them on a global market.

What do we do?

We offer three world class programmes that fast track the development of potential business leaders:

- Saltire Scholars are outstanding undergraduates from Scottish Universities who gain experience and confidence from placements with leading companies all over the world.
- Saltire Fellows already have the business experience, the passion and the potential that marks them out. The intensive Fellowship programme, which starts at Babson College in the USA, accelerates their development and that of Scottish companies.
- Saltire Alumni. The Fellowship and Scholarship are just the beginning. The Alumni programme provides a platform for our Alumni to flourish through regular masterclasses, networking and job opportunities.

We expect the Fellows and Scholars to step up and make an impact, but not alone. We will continue to plug them into Scotland's finest opportunities and their peers will be there to support them, challenge them and inspire them for the rest of their professional life.

Our vision is that, within 5 years, a cadre of over 1,000 Saltire alumni will be playing their role in the success of global Scottish businesses. This group together with our supporters will create the momentum necessary to make a lasting change.
